|                             | ) |            |
| Defendants.                 | ) |            |

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff's Motion to Reopen. (Filing No. 56.) In his Motion, Plaintiff asks the court to reopen this case so that he may pursue his habeas corpus claims. (Id.) For the reasons discussed below Plaintiff's Motion is denied.

On December 2, 2009, the court dismissed this matter without prejudice and entered Judgment against Plaintiff. (Filing Nos. 53 and 54.) In its December 2, 2009, Memorandum and Order, the court concluded that some of Plaintiff's claims were barred by Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994). (Filing No. 53 at CM/ECF p. 3.) The court dismissed those claims without prejudice to reassertion in a habeas corpus or similar proceeding. (Id.)

As the court previously informed Plaintiff, claims relating to the validity of an individual's incarceration may not be brought in a civil rights case, regardless of the relief sought. (Filing No. 53 at CM/ECF p. 3.) See also Heck, 512 U.S. at 486-87. This matter is a civil rights case that has been closed for almost a year. If Plaintiff desires to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, he must file it as a separate case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Reopen (filing no. 56) is denied.

DATED this 9th day of November, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

Richard G. Kopf
United States District Judge
